

TIGER ROUTED BY FUSION FORCES

John Purroy Mitchel Elected Mayor of New York.

SULZER IS ALSO A WINNER.

Victorious in His Race for Assembly. Murphy Hopes Successful Candidate's Administration Will Be of Substantial Benefit to City.

New York, Nov. 5.—Fusion carried New York city, electing John Purroy Mitchel mayor by approximately 100,000 plurality and retaining control of the important board of estimate by a safe margin.

Tammany Hall saw its nominee for the mayoralty, Edward E. McCall, go down to defeat by one of the biggest pluralities ever given against a candidate of the organization. The big vote for Mitchel pulled through the fusion candidates for president of the board of aldermen and comptroller, George McAneny and William A. Fundergast, against whom the Independence league as well as Democratic organization candidates were running.

Apparently, with the exception of assemblymen in the districts which usually go Democratic, and minor officers in some of the boroughs, the opposition to fusion succeeded in electing only one of its nominees, S. Maurice Connelly, for borough president of Queens.

The fusionists elected borough presidents in Brooklyn, the Bronx and Richmond, and apparently have pulled through their candidate for president of the borough of Manhattan, Marcus M. Marks, by a small plurality over Dr. Thomas Darlington, Tammany. The result thus indicated would leave Tammany but one vote out of sixteen in the board of estimate, which controls the city's purse.

In the sixth assembly district William Sulzer, recently deposed as governor, was elected on the Progressive ticket.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, issued a brief statement.

"The result speaks for itself," he said. "Mr. Mitchel has been elected by a majority of the voters. His opponents join in the wish that he may have a successful administration and hope that it will be of substantial benefit to the city."

Mayor elect Mitchel declared the result was not a personal triumph, but a victory for the cause of good government.

Democrats Lose Assembly.

Sweeping gains were made by the Republicans all through the state following a campaign in which the issue of "Tammany rule" was raised with almost as much vigor outside of New York city as in the campaign here. Indications, based on incomplete returns, were that the Democratic party had lost control of the lower branch of the legislature.

Late returns showed the election of seventy-five Republicans, thirty-six Democrats and five Progressives, with two in doubt. Nine of the successful Democratic candidates and eight of the Republicans were endorsed by the Progressives. Thirty-two districts have not been heard from.

READY FOR BASKET BALL.

Four Teams Organized at the Normal and From Among Them the First Team Will Be Chosen.

Tuesday evening all those who have taken part in the gymnasium class of the Normal school, and all those who expect to play basket ball during the coming season met and teams for the tournament which is to begin this week were chosen.

Four captains, Vandersloot, Quinn, Woodard and Powell, were chosen by Coach L. M. Eek, and these men in turn selected the team with which to compete in the tournament. The teams selected and their names are as follows: All Stars, Captain Vandersloot, Ritchie, Borchers, Price, Neal and Lyle; Tigers, Captain Quinn, Ford, Webb, Livengood, Painter, Henderson; Cubs, Captain Woodard, Schaub, Nicholas, Webster, Kissinger and McClintock; Giants, Captain Powell, McReynolds, Jones, Goodin, Wamsley, McPherron.

The teams play their first games Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The idea of the tournament is to get the men hardened to the game and to get a line on the men who are to compose the Normal school first team.

Their Annual Dinner.

The women of the First Baptist church are planning for their annual Thanksgiving dinner at the church. The only part of the dinner that has yet been fully decided on is the principal part, the turkey, and there will be plenty of it. The menu will be given later.

ABOUT MR. OAKERSON.

What the St. Joseph Gazette Has to Say in Regard to His Candidacy for State Superintendent.

The following is from today's St. Joseph Gazette in regard to County Superintendent Oakerson for state superintendent of schools:

Nothing less than the finding of a small but useful $10 bank note on the sidewalk with nobody near to dispute our claims to it would afford us so much pleasure as comes in the knowledge that the learned and otherwise excellent school teachers of Northwest Missouri have unanimously voted an endorsement of our beloved and otherwise well recommended friend, Prof. W. M. Oakerson of the justly famous Nodaway county school system, as a candidate for state superintendent.

We disremember on what particular ticket our highly esteemed friend is in the habit of getting elected county superintendent up in Nodaway, as he began the practice quite a few years ago, and has never since wearied of repeating it. But we know that politics wouldn't count with the lovely lady teachers—Prof. Oakerson would get the support of 'em all in the state, with campaign work thrown in by the fair educators of neighboring commonwealths who have occasionally strayed over here into Missouri long enough to get acquainted with Nodaway county's auburn haired and otherwise good looking school superintendent. We have, to be sure, at times suspected that Prof. remained single just to line up the feminine pedagogical contingent solidly behind him, but we may be mistaken in that. To err is human, as working the tender sex is masculine. But we do know that no horrid old married candidate for the state position could hope to even get a peek in with our highly admired and bachelorly inclined professional friend from Nodaway making the race.

SECURED PATENT.

W. E. Glover's Invention of a Putting Machine Approved at Washington.

W. E. Glover of the firm of Glover & Blackwell, the Quality Shop, received word a few days ago from his attorney, Victor J. Evans of Washington, D. C., that his patent on his putting machine had been granted. It is an absolutely new invention, as there is nothing of its kind.

Mr. Glover expects to place it on the market soon. It is a labor saving device as well as a practical piece of machinery.

TO START FACTORY.

Judge J. O. Thompson Seeking Location for Factory in South St. Joseph.

Judge J. O. Thompson of Guilford is looking for a location for a factory, where he will manufacture a self-loading fertilizer spreader, an invention of his, for which he recently obtained a patent. It is Judge Thompson's intention to locate in the south end if he can find a suitable site.

Mrs. Frank Reynolds and children went to Cainesville Wednesday morning to visit her mother.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN BAY STATE

Walsh is Elected Governor of Massachusetts.

FIELDER WINS IN NEW JERSEY

Has Plurality Over Republican Opponent of Twenty Thousand—Democrats Elect Senator in Maryland. Stuart is Governor of Virginia.

New York, Nov. 5.—Election returns show a complete triumph for the Democrats in Massachusetts, where a governor and state ticket were chosen in a four-cornered fight; the selection of a Democratic governor and state ticket in Virginia without contest; the ascendancy of fusion over Tammany in New York city, and the election of James F. Fielder (Dem.) as governor of New Jersey. In Maryland a Democratic senator was chosen.

In Massachusetts David I. Walsh (Dem.), present lieutenant governor, was elected by a plurality of about 50,000 over Augustus P. Gardner (Rep.), Charles S. Bird (Prog.) and Governor Eugene N. Foss (Ind.). Henry C. Stuart was chosen governor of Virginia, together with an entire state ticket, Republicans and Progressives having declined to name candidates because of inability to agree on a united ticket.

Late New Jersey returns indicate that James F. Fielder (Dem.), for governor, has a plurality over Stokes (Rep.) of 20,000.

The Democrats have elected five of the eight state senators chosen, which will make the next state senate, with the holdovers, stands twelve Democrats to nine Republicans.

For United States senator, Maryland chose Blair Lee (Dem.). Democracy triumphed also in the Twentieth New York congressional district, where Jacob H. Cantor was elected; the Thirtieth New York, where George W. Loft, succeeding the late Tim Sullivan, was elected, and the Third Maryland district, where Charles P. Coady was the choice.

Republicans Win in Cincinnati.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Republicans recorded gains in several municipal elections held in various cities in central states. In Cincinnati, Judge F. S. Spiegel (Rep.) won over Mayor Henry T. Hunt (Dem.).

Land Changes at Hopkins.

Eber D. Collins and W. W. Alexander bought the Shelman estate, consisting of 401½ acres, at $75 per acre, or $30,138.

Mr. Collins has since sold the Wm. Lazenby farm of 164½ acres, which he bought recently for $100 per acre, to Wm. Shelman for $20,150. Mr. Collins then bought Alexander's half interest in the Shelman land for $16,069. Mr. Collins then sold 40 acres to George W. Thompson. Mr. Collins expects to move from Iowa on March 1, where he sold 120 acres of land to Frank Borden at $130 per acre. Mr. Collins expects to live on the Shelman farm, which, when improved, will make an extra fine stock farm.

Mr. Collins is an energetic young man, who will be welcome in that community.

Position at Quality Shop.

A. D. Arnett, the expert decorator, has accepted a position with Glover & Blackwell, who recently purchased the Quality Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Will V. Bishop and Miss Madonna Fay Bishop of Ravenwood were Maryville visitors Tuesday.

John D. Richey, cashier of the Nodaway Valley bank, was a St. Joseph visitor Wednesday.

GRANTED DIVORCE

MRS. C. J. COLDEN ALSO GETS ALIMONY AND CHILDREN.

GIVEN FOR DESERTION

Petition Stated That Mr. Colden Was Possessed of Property Worth $40,000—Former Owner of Forum.

A decree of divorce and alimony of $6,000 was granted to Mrs. C. J. Colden by Judge Arch B. Davis at Gallatin Monday. She was also given the custody of the three minor children, Arch John Colden, Vjune Colden and Abbie Colden. The decree is said to be the ratification of an agreement arranged out of court. Two character witnesses for Mrs. Colden attended the trial from this county, Judge Joseph H. Saylor of Maryville and Albert Heflin of Pickering.

The first suit for divorce was filed by Mr. Colden at Independence, Mo., May 14, 1912, after the family had been living for some years in Kansas City. This suit was later dismissed. Mrs. Colden filed suit for divorce in the Nodaway circuit court September 18, 1912. The petition in the case alleged that the defendant had wholly disregarded his duties as husband and had absented himself from the plaintiff without reasonable cause for more than a year. The petition also stated that Mr. Colden was possessed of property to the value of more than $40,000. A change of venue was taken to Daviess county.

Mr. Colden, while a resident of Maryville, was the owner of the Nodaway Forum, president of the Normal board of regents, and the Democratic candidate for state senator in 1908, being defeated by Senator Peck. He is now engaged in magazine writing.

Mrs. Colden was represented by Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison.

HAS PRIVATE SERUM PLANT.

J. E. Strickler Has About Everything on His Nodaway County Farm to Keep Stock Well.

The following is from the Kansas City Daily Drivers Telegram in regard to J. E. Strickler, a prominent farmer of this county:

High priced farm lands in Nodaway county, Missouri, call for up to date improvements, according to J. E. Strickler, one of the wealthy farmers of that county. For many years Mr. Strickler has been adding improvements to his farm, until he now has it equipped with every modern improvement for living comfortably, as well as for carrying on cattle feeding in the most up to date manner.

Realizing the great necessity of vaccinating his hogs in order to save them, Mr. Strickler has on his farm a strictly modern serum plant of his own, where he handles his hogs, and keeps them immune from disease. Last summer he added many other improvements to his farm. These included a complete water works system. A cement standpipe on an elevated point, standing thirty feet high, and having a capacity of 1,200 barrels, was built. From this pipes are laid to his barns, feed lots, pig pens and into his house, where pure water from a bored well is furnished all the time. A windmill, also an engine is in use in pumping this water. The engine of course is also used for other purposes, for grinding feed and operating various other machinery in connection with the premises.

"In feeding cattle and hogs," Mr. Strickler said, "we have got to adopt the very latest and best methods in order to make this industry pay. The hog disease as it has appeared in recent years so generally over the country calls for the best of care and treatment. A preventive is the only 'remedy' to use. My serum plant is a cement structure, with separate pens 10x14 feet in size, with alleys 8 feet wide. With a good water pressure we can flush them, and wash them, and keep them clean all the time. In fact, pure water for stock is almost as essential now as it is for use in the family."

Mr. Strickler buys on the Kansas City market hundreds of head of cattle every year. Last Saturday he bought and took out eighty-six head of steers.

Mrs. F. M. Martin and her guest, Mrs. J. C. Martin of Sayre, Okla., went to St. Joseph Thursday morning for a few days' visit at the home of B. Raleigh Martin.

Mrs. T. J. Archer of St. Joseph returned home Monday evening from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoskins.

MAUD POWELL IS HERE.

The Greatest Woman Violinist Came Wednesday Noon for Concert Tonight—Her Husband With Her.

Maud Powell-Turner, the greatest woman violinist in the world, arrived in Maryville Wednesday noon on the Burlington train, and will appear this Wednesday evening at the First M. E. church in the second number of the Maryville Lyceum association's lecture and entertainment course.

Maud Powell is accompanied by her husband, H. Godfrey Turner, and her pianist, Mr. Francis Moore. They registered at the Lenville as from El Paso, Texas.

The artist and her party were met at the train by Mrs. J. D. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend. The ladies informed Miss Powell of the wish of several to show her special courtesy while here, but she begged them not to do so, as she wished to keep herself for the entertainment she would give tonight. The only courtesy she accepted was a car ride this afternoon with Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend. She is a beautiful woman.

The ushers at the First M. E. church this Wednesday evening for the concert will be the girls and young matrons of the Twentieth Century club, under direction of the president, Mrs. D. J. Thomas. They are Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend, Mrs. Oliver K. Howard, Miss May Corwin, Miss Donna Sisson, Miss Clara Storm, Miss Dorothy Pierce, Miss Cecile Benight, Miss Brownie Toel and Miss Laura Barmann.

DELAY IN DELIVERY.

Many Reasons Why Letters Are Not Delivered—Use Care in Addressing Correspondence.

A circular letter sent to postmasters by the first assistant postmaster general says that the delivery of letters, especially in the large cities, is frequently delayed and oftentimes made impossible by the omission of an important part of the address, such as the street number, or room number when addressed to an office building. Not infrequently the name of the street is omitted, only the name of the post-office and state being given. Another source of trouble is the practice of giving an address at the intersection of two streets without giving the location of the corner, for in some large cities a number of carriers' routes may terminate at that point or it may be the dividing line between the respective territories of the main postoffice and a station or between two stations, and in the absence of the notation "N. E.," "N. W.," etc., the distributors are unable to determine to which carrier the mail should be thrown.

Postmasters should advise their patrons that complete and accurate addresses are essential to prompt mail delivery and that they should co-operate with the department to the extent of seeing that all mail originated by them bears a street number, or room number in the case of an office building, in addition to the name of the city and state. Attention should also be invited to the fact that they can be of material assistance in the education of the general public with respect to this requirement by having all stationery intended for transmission in the mails printed with their complete street or office address.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Howard McCommon Sells Residence Property to Tom Wallace, Formerly of Clearmont.

Holmes & Wolfert announced today the following real estate deals:

Howard McCommon's residence property on South Buchanan street to Tom Wallace of Clearmont, who is now residing in Mexico, Mo., his children attending school there. Mr. Wallace will take possession next spring.

The old T. J. Parle residence, belonging to O. L. Holmes and located on East Thompson street, sold to D. E. Holmes, a traveling man. He will take possession at once.

JUDGMENT BEING ENTERED.

The Case of Elizabeth Gowney vs. Patrick J. O'Donnell et al. Was Disposed Of.

The case of Elizabeth Gowney vs. Patrick J. O'Donnell et al., to set aside a deed, was disposed of with Judge J. W. Peery of Albany on the bench. By agreement of parties, twenty acres were given to the plaintiff. The commissioners of the court were W. F. Phares, W. T. Jackson and John H. Clary.

Buys Property Here.

Deputy Sheriff Dee Callahan has bought the J. C. Lanning property at 1201 East Third street. He gave in the deal his residence property at Clearmont to Mr. Lanning. Mr. Callahan will take possession at once.

GUESTS OF CITY

MEMBERS OF STATE ASSOCIATION OF FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

EIGHTY MEMBERS HERE

The Visitors Will Be Entertained at a Banquet at the Elks Club This Evening.

Maryville has as her guests today the members of the State Association of Mutual Fire Insurance Companies, it being their sixteenth annual convention. There are about eighty members in attendance from all over the state and fifty-four companies represented out of the ninety-five in the state.

The meeting is being held in the court house and was opened today with music by Maulding's orchestra. Invocation was given by Rev. S. D. Harkness of the Presbyterian church, and the address of welcome in behalf of the city by W. A. Blagg. The address of welcome in behalf of the local insurance company was given by J. L. Hepburn, president of that company. The response was made by Dr. J. A. Minor of Easton, Mo. President Ira Richardson of the Normal also gave an address.

According to the secretary's report the amount of insurance these county mutual companies have in force at present is $120,501,953, an increase of $11,075,378 over 1912. The loss during the year amounted to $311,377.

The officers of the state association are J. B. Shores, president, of Fayette; W. H. Fitch, vice president, Richmond; W. B. Flowers, treasurer, Mendon; W. L. Shouse, secretary, Shelbyville. All of these officers are in attendance at the meeting.

The visitors will be entertained this evening at 7 o'clock with a banquet at the Elks club to be given by the Commercial club and the County Mutual Insurance company.

WILL NOT ALLOW BILL.

County Court Refused to Approve Bill of W. H. Crawford as Probation Officer—Gave Their Reasons.

The county court refused today to allow the bill of W. H. Crawford as probation officer of the juvenile court. The bill was for $333.33 and was for the months of July, August, September and October, for services rendered in juvenile court. The court disallowed the bill for the reason that a recent decision handed down by a court of justice, making the probate judge and judge of the juvenile court, is unconstitutional.

The court on Wednesday afternoon made a trip to the northeast part to look over some contemplated improvements on roads and bridges. They will adjourn this evening.

A Lesson in Milking a Cow That Was Not a Lady

Just as Homer Croy Reached for the Source of Supply Things Began to Happen.

Some scientific expert engaged in farming has just discovered that a cow should be treated as a lady. Sometimes this is difficult, as often this depends on her early training.

We used to have a cow back home, a large roan with a low, retreating forehead, who had a way of stepping in the bucket that lost her many friends. No cow can endure herself to a person when she is standing with one foot in the bucket. No cow with the right kind of early life will do this.

When a person is thrown into the society of a cow it does not take him long to find out what her early life has been. If she stands with one foot in the bucket for any length of time, one can feel morally certain that her mother was not of the highest type.

Our cow's name was Clarice. I was often called on to milk Clarice. I was loath to do this, and she was just as loath to have me. We were never what might be called fast friends.

Once, with a bucket on my arm, I approached her on the subject of milking. Clarice was standing in the milk lot with a sad, far away look in her eyes, as if all her dreams had not come true, going over her supper for a second time. Clarice was always going back and putting a few finishing touches to her supper.

I placed the pail under her body, well toward the rear, and seated myself on a one-legged stool. I had not asked her if I could do this, but I felt that all would be well. Clarice had a window weight on the end of her tail, that she has picked up fighting flies down in the creek. I did not know that she was armed. I had just turned my attention to the pail when she hit me with the window weight. She was a good hitter.

I did not say anything, but I gave her a significant look. Fitting my shoulder into her side I again took hold of her. I put my hands around the parts mentioned and squeezed them. While I was trying to get the milk running she again hit me with the window weight. I gave her another significant look, followed by a lowering glance, and again placed my ear in her flank and reached for the source of supply. My hands had barely closed over the source of supply before I felt the muscles of her flank gather and become taut. Still suspicion did not strike me—but something else did. The last I remember distinctly was having my ear in her flank. The next thing I knew I had it in a pillow. From that time on there was a certain coldness between us. Her charm was gone. She now had feet of clay.

One evening I was crossing the meadow just as night was stealing out of the woods and blowing his black breath over the countryside, when I heard an angry voice behind me. I immediately turned around. It was Clarice's husband.

He was coming at me in high dudgeon. He had his nose close to the ground and his eyes on me. I saw that I was not needed and turned and started away as fast as I could. The husband came on apace. When I turned I found that he had come on several of them.

I headed toward a tree. When I arrived at the tree I took hold of a lower limb and started to ascend at once. I was out of breath, but I felt that it would be best to wait until I was at the top to regain it. I felt a shock, and in a moment saw the seat of a pair of trousers on his horns. I left that they were mine. I kept on climbing. This did not deter me a jot or tittle. Not a little.

My pursuer stood under the tree and, placing his nose near the ground, said things that I do not care to repeat, for I do not know who may be reading these lines. He stayed a long while under the tree, while I remained in it. I had no desire to come down. I would wait until my caller had gone. I was glad that the tree had selected that spot for its nativity. I was thankful that it had not seen fit to cast its fortunes a quarter of a mile farther on.

At last the unpleasant creature left. I did not try to get him to stay. I was tiring of his company. Once or twice I yawned openly. Finally, in the gloaming, he joined Clarice, and the two strolled off.

I did not feel favorably disposed toward either party. Try as I might, I could not help picking flaws in their breeding. Clarice had not lived up to my ideal of a lady, and her better half had fallen far short of my idea of a gentleman.—Homer Croy in Collier's Weekly.

A Week-End House Party.

Messrs. Dale and Harry Whitehurst of near Bedison were the hosts of a week-end house party to a number of their Barnard friends. The time was very pleasantly occupied in taking kodak pictures, games, vocal and piano music, and best of all, the good things in the eating line prepared by their mother and sister, Mrs. James Whitehurst and Mrs. W. B. Torrance. The guests departed Monday morning on the train from Arkoe. They are all wishing their hosts will have another house party in the near future and that they will again be the favored ones. Those in the party were Misses Maud and Dorothy Strader, Helen Merrill, Lavona and Mabel Cook, Jessie Goforth and Lydia Ambrose, and Messrs. Ova Goff, Arlie Strader, John and Floyd Ambrose.

Educational Methods Their Theme.

The women of the Twentieth Century club discussed "Modern Improvements in Children's Education" at its general meeting at the Elks club Tuesday afternoon, under the leadership of Mrs. George P. Bellows, who started the study with quite an interesting talk, touching on various writings that have been presented in several good practical ways in leading publications by men who see fault in the present day system. Mrs. Charles P. Bellows gave a complete article on the Gary system that has been introduced at Gary, Ind., where the children are being taught practical things in a way that is a great departure from the old system of teaching. They are being taught civics in the grades by learning the cost of everything pertaining to the building of houses and cement walks and paved streets, and so on, by figuring it out themselves, and the cost of everything they use, so they will early learn the value of things and have proper regard for everything.

They have fine gymnasiums through which the value of their bodies is taught and how to preserve health and strength. Miss Jessie Parcher spoke of the Montessori system, and gave an interesting sketch of its mother, Dr. Maria Montessori of Rome, who is the first Italian woman to break away from the stilted life of those women, and found a system of education that is gaining favor in America to such an extent that it may supercede entirely the present system that is not meeting with the requirements of present day American life. Dr. Montessori, who is a doctor of medicine, began the use of her system in 1900, working among the defective poor children until 1907, with such success that educators wondered what could not be done with it among normal, healthy children. By it each child receives individual instruction, instead of being taught in masses, as is now the way. The children are taught to read and write from the first. Mrs. George Bellows then told of what James M. Pierce of Des Moines, Ia., the famous newspaper man, is doing in regard to this new system. He is financing the Montessori method for the children in Tarrytown, N. Y., and is doing all he can to persuade educators in the state of Iowa to adopt its use. Iowa already stands head in this section in its graded schools, with Nebraska second and Kansas third. The Montessori system, it is found, is superior to the present kindergarten system. Mrs. Berney Harris and Miss Mayme Dooley presented "What is the Standard of Our Local School; Do Teacher and Parent Work Together, and is the School Board Doing Its Best?" They found the Maryville high school in the first class high schools in the state, standing high in attendance with 914, when the average is 80. Its graduates take high rank at the state university, nine of them having been elected to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa. The salaries of our high school teachers are above the average, running from $65 to $85, and the principal's salary is above that of any in the state. They found that 50 per cent of the teachers in the state receive less than $399 per year, but were glad to report the salaries of Maryville teachers much better than that. We pay a school tax of but $1, while in other places the rate is much higher. We have no medical inspector, no physical director, no drawing supervisor, no music supervisor, but should have, especially in regard to music. The domestic science department ranks higher than any in the state outside the cities excepting Savannah and Moberly. The equipment of our high school is good for school work, but the library could use $500 more books. The building is sanitary and above the average. The gymnasiums are above the average, but the playgrounds are poorly equipped, and this, is the opinion of the superintendent, as well as the ladies who gave the result of their investigation to the club. Hand work is well taught in all the grades and in the ward schools they found the teachers handicapped in their work by having too many children in their departments. There should be another teacher in each of the ward schools. One of the ward teachers has fifty-seven pupils in her room, divided into three classes. No teacher should have more than thirty to do justice to herself and the children. Several have over fifty, and one in the Central building has over fifty. All the teachers are above the average. All are required to have normal training for grade work, while the high school teachers must be college graduates. The schools have 600 pupils with 16 teachers, too many pupils for that number of teachers. All parents are doing all they can to assist the teacher in her work, but the school board, it is believed, is doing all it can for the schools with the money it has to do with.

Col. Roosevelt and Mrs. Wiggs.

"De-lighted," cried Colonel Roosevelt when in Louisville he was shown the veritable "cabbage patch" wherein Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice found Mrs. Wiggs and Lovey Mary. And the chief executive went on to say that he regarded Mrs. Wiggs' life quite as highly as the simple life preached by his friend the Rev. Charles Wagner. Presidential praise is high praise always, and in his speech delivered before the students of the State Agricultural college at Lansing, Mich., he said: "You will learn the root principles of self-helpfulness toward others from 'Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch,' just as much as from any formal treatise on charity." This shows that the former executive is thoroughly in accord with the American people, who love Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch as they have loved few other women of literature and the stage.

The play will be presented here under the management of the United Play Co. on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the Empire theater.

DRUNKEN PRISONERS HOLD HIGH CARNIVAL

Secure Riot Gun and Ammunition and Shoot Up Jail.

Morristown, N. J., Nov. 5.—Two drunken prisoners, with a riot gun and 1,000 rounds of ammunition, held high carnival at the Morris county jail here from midnight until dawn, terrorizing other inmates, riddling the keeper's office with bullets and failing in their plot for a wholesale jail delivery only because they drank too much liquor after escaping from their cells.

The prisoners, Eugene Sampson and John Burns, were placed in the hospital ward with several other prisoners charged, like themselves, with minor offenses. They picked the lock of a door which leads into the keeper's office. On entering the office they broke open a desk and procured a bottle of liquor and drank it. Next they broke into a store room and obtained a riot gun and ammunition. Returning to the hospital ward they closed the door and began firing through it. As each shell contained a number of bullets, the keeper's office was riddled.

At daylight, when deputies and keepers entered the jail, they found the inmates in a state of terror. Burns and Sampson were asleep.

Walkira Pounding to Pieces.
Galveston, Nov. 5.—S. O. S. signals were received here from the yacht Walkira L., with a crew of thirty-two men, bound from New Orleans to Tampico, indicating the vessel was pounding to pieces on the shore near Aransas Pass. The tug Senator Bailey has gone to the rescue.

Engine Explosion Fatal.
Frazee, Minn., Nov. 5.—Otto Bebeskie was killed and two other men seriously injured when the boiler of a farm engine exploded.

MAN WITH MORE LIVES THAN A CAT Trout Once More Flirts With Death and is Still Alive.

Kansas City, Nov. 5.—La E. Trout, known among his friends as the "Man Who Can't Be Killed," was sorted out from a pile of wood and scrap iron that had constituted a motorcycle and a buggy and was found once more to have narrowly escaped certain death. Trout was thrown among the scraps in a collision. He was found to have sustained a skinned knuckle and his hair was mussed up.

Five years ago Trout fell 170 feet from the top of an office building, on which he was working, crashed through a skylight at the bottom of the light court and landed on his feet on the ground floor. He was in a hospital a few days with bruises, abrasions and sprains.

About a year ago Trout was hurled over a fence into a cabbage patch when his motorcycle collided with a cat. At that time his left arm was fractured.

Trout has advertised his business by using as a delivery wagon a two-wheeled top buggy hitched to a motorcycle. The latest mishap resulted when this contrivance, going twenty-five miles an hour, ran into a curbing. He was arrested recently for driving his motorcycle fifty miles an hour with his five-year-old son on the handle bars.

LABOR FEDERATION TO MEET

Socialists Will Renew Fight to Control Organization.

Seattle, Nov. 5.—The general officers and a large number of eastern delegates to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor arrived here. Samuel Gompers, who is in poor health, will attend the convention, which will begin next Monday, but will accept no outside invitations. Secretary of Labor Wilson will arrive Monday.

It is intimated that the strife between the rival national unions of electrical workers has been ended, and that the warring bodies will unite during the federation sessions.

The fight of the socialistic element to commit the federation to a socialistic policy will come up again this year, led, as before, by former Congressman Victor Berger and Max Hayes.

GARRISON ON WAY BACK

Says No Friction Between Metcalfe and Goethals.

Panama, Nov. 5.—The American secretary of war, Lindley M. Garrison, and party sailed for New York from Colon. With reference to the reported friction between Colonel Goethals and Governor Metcalfe, the secretary said:

"I have talked with Colonel Goethals and Governor Metcalfe separately and together and am pleased to find there is no truth in certain rumors that there is disagreement between them. I regret anyone should have indicated that anything of the kind existed."

Lane Proposes Immense Park.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Secretary Lane recommended the withdrawal of more than 34,000 acres of land near the city of Denver, which it is planned to convert into a park. The land is picturesque for park purposes, it was reported, but not of value for agriculture, mining or other use. The land was withdrawn temporarily during the Taft administration, but reverted to the public domain because of lack of congressional action.

DEFENSE SCORES AT KIEV

Theological Experts Ridicule Theory of Ritual Murder.

Kiev, Russia, Nov. 5.—The defense scored in the case against Mendel Belis, who is on trial for the alleged murder of the Christian boy, Yushinsky, when Professors Kokovsoff and Tihomiroff, theological experts, ridiculed the idea that the Jews practiced ritual murder. Professor Kokovsoff, who is attached to the St. Petersburg university and is a relative of the Russian premier, said:

"Were I told that the body of a child had been drained of its blood and were it proved to me this had been done by a Jew, the supposition that the crime had been perpetrated for the purpose of eating would be less absurd to my mind than the theory of ritual murder."

The witness could find nothing in the Talmud, he said, which directed the ritual murder of Christians.

Body May Be That of Mrs. Louissa.

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 5.—With her head and chest crushed, a woman, believed by the police to be Mrs. Mary Louissa of St. Clair, was found dead in the outskirts of Pottsville. Mrs. Louissa disappeared about two weeks ago and her twelve-year-old daughter created a stir when she reported to the police that her father had thrown her mother down a mine. The mine was searched in vain.

Shoots at Squirrel; Killed by Officer.

Kansas City, Nov. 5.—A hunter who refused to obey a command that he cease shooting in the park was shot and killed by Frank Robinson, a special officer in Swope park. The body was not identified. Robinson saw the man in the act of shooting a squirrel and ordered him to desist. The hunter replied by firing a charge at Robinson who then shot in self defense.

Read This Message Through to the End!

We want every reader of this printed message to ask himself: "Do I want to rise above the ordinary, commonplace existence that goes with a small, limited income? Have I a desire to BE SOMEBODY in this world, to attain a place among the SUCCESSFUL men and women who really accomplish something? Most of us have. The world has no use for failures, but it applauds SUCCESS."

YOU CAN SUCCEED—you can make more money than you are now earning.

You can increase your income in the amounts we named above. Oh, yes, you can. Don't say, "I simply cannot see how I can do it." That one remark is the earmark of failure. The "I can" and "I will" person is always welcomed by the handmaiden of SUCCESS. What are you today—a salary slave, a wage earner, or depending on the meager profits from some small business; do you run a boarding house, or wait on table, or clerk in a store or any one of a thousand and one vocations that allow you but the mere necessities of life? WHY NOT DO BETTER? WHY NOT BE SOMEBODY? Yes, you can! This printed message is the opportunity, is the open sesame to bigger, brighter things; it is the calling of OPPORTUNITY—the fabled old lady who visits us so very, very seldom.

Why not be associated with SUCCESSFUL men and women who have adopted a profession that is not alone lucrative, but is pleasant, educational, performed at will, and can be successfully accomplished by any person who can read, write and observe. No, dear reader, we are not going to ask you to join a correspondence school and TRY FOR THE UNATTAINABLE. Nor to buy a batch of technical books that few, very, very few persons, outside the authors can understand. Listen, read and let this truth soak in, permeate!

We are an organization of SUCCESSFUL men and women playwrights banded together for the mutual benefit of each member. We are co-operative,

we are SUCCESSFUL. We hold out to you your measure of success. WE MAKE YOU SUCCEED. The technical work WE DO. Few people are mentally trained for that part of the work. But EVERY PERSON is trained by nature to provide the ground work, the skeleton on which the trained expert builds his finished product. You are starting now at a safe, sane and sure method. We ACTUALLY NEED YOU. Probably you cannot realize this. But the fact remains; because with us, this motto holds, "One for all and all for one."

We have grown from a mere affiliation of a few souls buying experience dearly—right here on the ground, where 57 actual producing motion picture companies are rolling up film footage many thousands of feet a week. We have assisted each other, have taken in a few more from time to time. MADE THEM SUCCEED, because we brook no failure. And now, we are ready to extend the branches of this unique organization into the western states and accept a limited membership from each section, each state. The newness, the freshness, the out-of-the-ordinary happenings that occur daily in every habitable spot in this country are ALL WORTH MONEY. Catch the idea? We relieve all the harassing details from your shoulders; we care for the marketing and its attendant delays by mail. WE are on the spot and KNOW HOW. Often we ourselves purchase.

Let us repeat, BE SOMEBODY. Get away from the fetters of a limited salary or wage or income. Join yourself with a SUCCESS that is everyone's due. Participate in the pleasures of life that your Maker intended you to enjoy. There is ample room for all, but for the present we limit our membership and for that reason write TODAY. WRITE NOW. Write for the pamphlet that holds out to you the keys to freedom and happiness. Get in the band wagon of SUCCESS with us. If you don't you alone are to blame. A postal will do, and just say, "Send me details FREE." No obligation at all. Address your inquiry to Run down and Nervous, Restored to Health by Vinol.

A. D. Robinson, Radford, Va., says: "I was all run down in health, had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. Vinol was recommended to me, and after using one bottle I noticed an improvement. Continuing its use, I was completely restored to health. The nervousness is all gone, I can get a good night's sleep and have a hearty appetite. I can recommend Vinol to anyone who suffers as I did."

Vinol is the greatest body builder and strength creator we know of. The curative elements of the cod's liver, aided by the blood making, strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol, restore the lacking ingredients to the blood, and the result is health, strength and vigor.

If you need building up try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.—Grear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best for Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Tastes Delicious.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

Miss Lorene Blankenship, the trimmer for the Elite Millinery store, went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning, where she will be employed in a wholesale house.

Mrs. N. T. Saily of Excelsior Springs, Mo., is located at the McCrary millinery with a line of Chinese and Japanese hand embroideries, Cluny, Maderia and Venetian luncheon sets, and a big variety of antique laces. Will be here until Saturday only.

Mrs. John Herren and Mrs. M. Nusbaum went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning and will be guests of Mrs. George Toel until Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. T. Godsey and son and Mrs. George Keefe went to St. Joseph Tuesday evening to spend a few days with Mrs. Godsey's sister, Mrs. S. M. Smith.

Mrs. Lee Yeaman of Kansas City, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. A. M. Reece and Mrs. Joseph Aken, went home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. T. F. Reimer and children went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning for a week's visit with Mrs. Reimer's sister, Mrs. J. B. Luton.

Printed on the front of every official time table which goes to Wabash employees are two large circles, "SAFETY ALWAYS." Printed on the back of every official time table are these words: "SAFETY should be the first consideration of every employee." It is a constant admonition to every Wabash trainman, for the protection of every Wabash traveler. Beginning with the human factor, the Wabash surrounds its travelers with every mechanical safeguard known to modern railroadism: Steel equipment; automatic electric block signals; miles of double track; heavy rails and substantial roadbed; telephone dispatching, etc.

A Fine Chance to start in the Dairy Business With- out Much Money

Any dairyman who wants to get ahead but has only a little money, had better write and find out what I have to tell him about a way to get started in a great dairy country, where the first expense is small, and conditions including market are absolutely right.

Write at once, tell me something about yourself. Give me a chance to advise you. That's what I am paid to do.

TIGER ROUTED BY FUSION FORCES

John Purroy Mitchel Elected Mayor of New York.

SULZER IS ALSO A WINNER.

Victorious in His Race for Assembly, Murphy Hopes Successful Candidate's Administration Will Be of Substantial Benefit to City.

New York, Nov. 5.—Fusion carried New York city, electing John Purroy Mitchel mayor by approximately 100,000 plurality and retaining control of the important board of estimate by a safe margin.

Tammany Hall saw its nominee for the mayoralty, Edward E. McCall, go down to defeat by one of the biggest pluralities ever given against a candidate of the organization. The big vote for Mitchel pulled through the fusion candidates for president of the board of aldermen and comptroller, George McAneny and William A. Prendergast, against whom the Independent league as well as Democratic organization candidates were running.

Apparently, with the exception of assemblymen in the districts which usually go Democratic, and minor officers in some of the boroughs, the opposition to fusion succeeded in electing only one of its nominees, S. Maurice Connelly, for borough president of Queens.

The fusionists elected borough presidents in Brooklyn, the Bronx and Richmond, and apparently have pulled through their candidate for president of the borough of Manhattan, Marcus M. Marks, by a small plurality over Dr. Thomas Darlington, Tammany. The result thus indicated would leave Tammany but one vote out of sixteen in the board of estimate, which controls the city's purse.

In the sixth assembly district William Sulzer, recently deposed as governor, was elected on the Progressive ticket.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, issued a brief statement.

"The result speaks for itself," he said. "Mr. Mitchel has been elected by a majority of the voters. His opponents join in the wish that he may have a successful administration and hope that it will be of substantial benefit to the city."

Mayor elect Mitchel declared the result was not a personal triumph, but a victory for the cause of good government.

Democrats Lose Assembly.

Sweeping gains were made by the Republicans all through the state following a campaign in which the issue of "Tammany rule" was raised with almost as much vigor outside of New York city as in the campaign here. Indications, based on incomplete returns, were that the Democratic party had lost control of the lower branch of the legislature.

Late returns showed the election of seventy-five Republicans, thirty-six Democrats and five Progressives, with two in doubt. Nine of the successful Democratic candidates and eight of the Republicans were endorsed by the Progressives. Thirty-two districts have not been heard from.

READY FOR BASKET BALL.

Four Teams Organized at the Normal and From Among Them the First Team Will Be Chosen.

Tuesday evening all those who have taken part in the gymnasium class of the Normal school, and all those who expect to play basket ball during the coming season met and teams for the tournament which is to begin this week were chosen.

Four captains, Vandersloot, Quinn, Woodward and Powell, were chosen by Coach L. M. Eek, and these men in turn selected the team with which to compete in the tournament. The teams selected and their names are as follows: All Stars, Captain Vandersloot, Ritchie, Borchers, Price, Neal and Lyle; Tigers, Captain Quinn, Ford, Webb, Livengood, Painter, Henderson; Cubs, Captain Woodward, Schaub, Nicholas, Webster, Klissinger and McClintock; Giants, Captain Powell, McReynolds, Jones, Goodin, Wamsley, McPherron.

The teams play their first games Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The idea of the tournament is to get the men hardened to the game and to get a line on the men who are to compose the Normal school first team.

Their Annual Dinner.

The women of the First Baptist church are planning for their annual Thanksgiving dinner at the church. The only part of the dinner that has yet been fully decided on is the principal part, the turkey, and there will be plenty of it. The menu will be given later.

ABOUT MR. OAKERSON.

What the St. Joseph Gazette Has to Say in Regard to His Candidacy for State Superintendent.

The following is from today's St. Joseph Gazette in regard to County Superintendent Oakerson for state superintendent of schools:

Nothing less than the finding of a small but useful $10 bank note on the sidewalk with nobody near to dispute our claims to it would afford us so much pleasure as comes in the knowledge that the learned and otherwise excellent school teachers of Northwest Missouri have unanimously voted an indorsement of our beloved and otherwise well recommended friend, Prof. W. M. Oakerson of the justly famous Nodaway county school system, as a candidate for state superintendent. We disremember on what particular ticket our highly esteemed friend is in the habit of getting elected county superintendent up in Nodaway, as he began the practice quite a few years ago, and has never since wearied of repeating it. But we know that politics wouldn't count with the lovely lady teachers—Prof. Oakerson would get the support of 'em all in the state, with campaign work thrown in by the fair educators of neighboring commonwealths who have occasionally strayed over here into Missouri long enough to get acquainted with Nodaway county's auburn haired and otherwise good looking school superintendent. We have, to be sure, at times suspected that Prof. remained single just to line up the feminine pedagogical contingent solidly behind him, but we may be mistaken in that. To err is human, as working the tender sex is masculine. But we do know that no horrid old married candidate for the state position could hope to even get a peek in with our highly admired and bachelor inclined professional friend from Nodaway making the race.

SECURED PATENT.

W. E. Glover's Invention of a Putting Machine Approved at Washington.

W. E. Glover of the firm of Glover & Blackwell, the Quality Shop, received word a few days ago from his attorney, Victor J. Evans of Washington, D. C., that his patent on his putting machine had been granted. It is an absolutely new invention, as there is nothing of its kind.

Mr. Glover expects to place it on the market soon. It is a labor saving device as well as a practical piece of machinery.

TO START FACTORY.

Judge J. O. Thompson Seeking Location for Factory in South St. Joseph.

Judge J. O. Thompson of Guilford is looking for a location for a factory, where he will manufacture a self-loading fertilizer spreader, an invention of his, for which he recently obtained a patent. It is Judge Thompson's intention to locate in the south end if he can find a suitable site.

Mrs. Frank Reynolds and children went to Cainesville Wednesday morning to visit her mother.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN BAY STATE

Walsh is Elected Governor of Massachusetts.

FIELDER WINS IN NEW JERSEY

Has Plurality Over Republican Opponent of Twenty Thousand—Democrats Elect Senator in Maryland. Stuart Is Governor of Virginia.

New York, Nov. 5.—Election returns show a complete triumph for the Democrats in Massachusetts, where a governor and state ticket were chosen in a four-cornered fight; the selection of a Democratic governor and state ticket in Virginia without contest; the ascendancy of fusion over Tammany in New York city, and the election of James F. Fielder (Dem.) as governor of New Jersey. In Maryland a Democratic senator was chosen.

In Massachusetts David I. Walsh (Dem.), present lieutenant governor, was elected by a plurality of about 50,000 over Augustus P. Gardner (Rep.), Charles S. Bird (Prog.) and Governor Eugene N. Foss (Ind.).

Henry C. Stuart was chosen governor of Virginia, together with an entire state ticket, Republicans and Progressives having declined to name candidates because of inability to agree on a united ticket.

Late New Jersey returns indicate that James F. Fielder (Dem.), for governor, has a plurality over Stokes (Rep.) of 20,000.

The Democrats have elected five of the eight state senators chosen, which will make the next state senate, with the holdovers, stands twelve Democrats to nine Republicans.

For United States senator, Maryland chose Blair Lee (Dem.). Democracy triumphed also in the Twentieth New York congressional district, where Jacob H. Cantor was elected; the Thirtieth New York, where George W. Loft, succeeding the late Tim Sullivan, was elected; and the Third Maryland district, where Charles P. Coady was the choice.

Republicans Win in Cincinnati.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Republicans recorded gains in several municipal elections held in various cities in central states. In Cincinnati, Judge F. S. Spiegel (Rep.) won over Mayor Henry T. Hunt (Dem.).

Land Changes at Hopkins.

Eber D. Collins and W. W. Alexander bought the Shelman estate, consisting of 401½ acres, at $75 per acre, or $30,138.

Mr. Collins has since sold the Wm. Lazenby farm of 164½ acres, which he bought recently for $100 per acre, to Wm. Shelman for $20,150. Mr. Collins then bought Alexander's half interest in the Shelman land for $16,069. Mr. Collins then sold 40 acres to George W. Thompson. Mr. Collins expects to move from Iowa on March 1, where he sold 120 acres of land to Frank Borden at $130 per acre. Mr. Collins expects to live on the Shelman farm, which, when improved, will make an extra fine stock farm.

Mr. Collins is an energetic young man, who will be welcome in that community.

GRANTED DIVORCE

MRS. C. J. COLDEN ALSO GETS ALIMONY AND CHILDREN.

GIVEN FOR DESERTION

Petition Stated That Mr. Colden Was Possessed of Property Worth $40,000—Former Owner of Forum.

A decree of divorce and alimony of $6,000 was granted to Mrs. C. J. Colden by Judge Arch B. Davis at Gallatin Monday. She was also given the custody of the three minor children, Arch John Colden, Vijune Colden and Abbie Colden. The decree is said to be the ratification of an agreement arranged out of court. Two character witnesses for Mrs. Colden attended the trial from this county, Judge Joseph H. Saylor of Maryville and Albert Heflin of Pickering.

The first suit for divorce was filed by Mr. Colden at Independence, Mo., May 14, 1912, after the family had been living for some years in Kansas City. This suit was later dismissed. Mrs. Colden filed suit for divorce in the Nodaway circuit court September 18, 1912. The petition in the case alleged that the defendant had wholly disregarded his duties as husband and had absented himself from the plaintiff without reasonable cause for more than a year. The petition also stated that Mr. Colden was possessed of property to the value of more than $40,000. A change of venue was taken to Daviess county.

Mr. Colden, while a resident of Maryville, was the owner of the Nodaway Forum, president of the Normal board of regents, and the Democratic candidate for state senator in 1908, being defeated by Senator Peck. He is now engaged in magazine writing.

Mrs. Colden was represented by Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison.

HAS PRIVATE SERUM PLANT.

J. E. Strickler Has About Everything on His Nodaway County Farm to Keep Stock Well.

The following is from the Kansas City Daily Drovers Telegram in regard to J. E. Strickler, a prominent farmer of this county:

High priced farm lands in Nodaway county, Missouri, call for up to date improvements, according to J. E. Strickler, one of the wealthy farmers of that county. For many years Mr. Strickler has been adding improvements to his farm, until he now has it equipped with every modern improvement for living comfortably, as well as for carrying on cattle feeding in the most up to date manner.

Realizing the great necessity of vaccinating his hogs in order to save them, Mr. Strickler has on his farm a strictly modern serum plant of his own, where he handles his hogs, and keeps them immune from disease. Last summer he added many other improvements to his farm. These included a complete water works system. A cement standpipe on an elevated point, standing thirty feet high, and having a capacity of 1,200 barrels, was built. From this pipe are laid to his barns, feed lots, pig pens and into his house, where pure water from a bored well is furnished all the time. A windmill, also an engine is in use in pumping this water. The engine of course is also used for other purposes, for grinding feed and operating various other machinery in connection with the premises.

In feeding cattle and hogs, Mr. Strickler said, "we have got to adopt the very latest and best methods in order to make this industry pay. The hog disease as it has appeared in recent years so generally over the country calls for the best of care and treatment. A preventive is the only 'remedy' to use. My serum plant is a cement structure, with separate pens 10x14 feet in size, with alleys 8 feet wide. With a good water pressure we can flush them, and wash them, and keep them clean all the time. In fact, pure water for stock is almost as essential now as it is for use in the family."

Mr. Strickler buys on the Kansas City market hundreds of head of cattle every year. Last Saturday he bought and took out eighty-six head of steers.

Mrs. F. M. Martin and her guest, Mrs. J. C. Martin of Sayre, Okla., went to St. Joseph Thursday morning for a few days' visit at the home of B. Raleigh Martin.

Mrs. T. J. Archer of St. Joseph returned home Monday evening from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoskins.

MAUD POWELL IS HERE.

The Greatest Woman Violinist Came Wednesday Noon for Concert Tonight—Her Husband With Her.

Maud Powell-Turner, the greatest woman violinist in the world, arrived in Maryville Wednesday noon on the Burlington train, and will appear this Wednesday evening at the First M. E. church in the second number of the Maryville Lyceum association's lecture and entertainment course.

Maud Powell is accompanied by her husband, H. Godfrey Turner, and her pianist, Mr. Francis Moore. They registered at the Linville as from El Paso, Texas.

The artist and her party were met at the train by Mrs. J. D. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend. The ladies informed Miss Powell of the wish of several to show her special courtesy while here, but she begged them not to do so, as she wished to keep herself for the entertainment she would give tonight. The only courtesy she accepted was a car ride this afternoon with Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend. She is a beautiful woman.

The ushers at the First M. E. church this Wednesday evening for the concert will be the girls and young matrons of the Twentieth Century club, under direction of the president, Mrs. D. J. Thomas. They are Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend, Mrs. Oliver K. Boward, Miss May Corwin, Miss Donna Sission, Miss Clara Sturm, Miss Dorothy Pierce, Miss Cecile Benight, Miss Brownie Toel and Miss Laura Barmann.

DELAY IN DELIVERY.

Many Reasons Why Letters Are Not Delivered—Use Care in Addressing Correspondence.

A circular letter sent to postmasters by the first assistant postmaster general says that the delivery of letters, especially in the large cities, is frequently delayed and oftentimes made impossible by the omission of an important part of the address, such as the street number, or room number when addressed to an office building. Not infrequently the name of the street is omitted, only the name of the post-office and state being given. Another source of trouble is the practice of giving an address at the intersection of two streets without giving the location of the corner, for in some large cities a number of carriers' routes may terminate at that point or it may be the dividing line between the respective territories of the main postoffice and a station or between two stations, and in the absence of the notation "N. E.," "N. W.," etc., the distributors are unable to determine to which carrier the mail should be thrown.

Postmasters should advise their patrons that complete and accurate addresses are essential to prompt mail delivery and that they should co-operate with the department to the extent of seeing that all mail originated by them bears a street number, or room number in the case of an office building, in addition to the name of the city and state. Attention should also be invited to the fact that they can be of material assistance in the education of the general public with respect to this requirement by having all stationery intended for transmission in the mails printed with their complete street or office address.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Howard McCommon Sells Residence Property to Tom Wallace, Formerly of Clearmont.

Holmes & Wolfert announced today the following real estate deals:

Howard McCommon's residence property on South Buchanan street to Tom Wallace of Clearmont, who is now residing in Mexico, Mo., his children attending school there. Mr. Wallace will take possession next spring.

The old T. J. Parle residence, belonging to O. L. Holmes and located on East Thompson street, sold to D. E. Holmes, a traveling man. He will take possession at once.

JUDGMENT BEING ENTERED.

The Case of Elizabeth Growney vs. Patrick J. O'Donnell et al. Was Disposed Of.

The case of Elizabeth Growney vs. Patrick J. O'Donnell et al., to set aside a deed, was disposed of with Judge J. W. Peery of Albany on the bench. By agreement of parties, twenty acres were given to the plaintiff. The commissioners of the court were W. F. Phares, W. T. Jackson and John H. Clary.

Buys Property Here.

Deputy Sheriff Dee Callahan has bought the J. C. Lanning property at 1201 East Third street. He gave in the deal his residence property at Clearmont to Mr. Lanning. Mr. Callahan will take possession at once.

GUESTS OF CITY

MEMBERS OF STATE ASSOCIATION OF FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

EIGHTY MEMBERS HERE

The Visitors Will Be Entertained at a Banquet at the Elks Club This Evening.

Maryville has as her guests today the members of the State Association of Mutual Fire Insurance Companies, it being their sixteenth annual convention. There are about eighty members in attendance from all over the state and fifty-four companies represented out of the ninety-five in the state.

The meeting is being held in the court house and was opened today with music by Maundling's orchestra. Invocation was given by Rev. S. D. Harkness of the Presbyterian church, and the address of welcome in behalf of the city by W. A. Blagg. The address of welcome in behalf of the local insurance company was given by J. L. Hepburn, president of that company. The response was made by Dr. J. A. Minor of Easton, Mo. President Ira Richardson of the Normal also gave an address.

According to the secretary's report the amount of insurance these county mutual companies have in force at present is $120,501,953, an increase of $11,075,378 over 1912. The loss during the year amounted to $311,377.

The officers of the state association are J. B. Shores, president, of Fayette; W. H. Fitch, vice president, Richmond; W. B. Flowers, treasurer, Meadville; W. L. Shouse, secretary, Shelby. All of these officers are in attendance at the meeting.

The visitors will be entertained this evening at 7 o'clock with a banquet at the Elks club to be given by the Commercial club and the County Mutual Insurance company.

WILL NOT ALLOW BILL.

County Court Refused to Approve Bill of W. H. Crawford as Probation Officer—Gave Their Reasons.

The county court refused today to allow the bill of W. H. Crawford as probation officer of the juvenile court. The bill was for $333.33 and was for the months of July, August, September and October, for services rendered in juvenile court. The court disallowed the bill for the reason that a recent decision handed down by a court of justice, making the probate judge as judge of the juvenile court, is unconstitutional.

The court on Wednesday afternoon made a trip to the northeast part to look over some contemplated improvements on roads and bridges. They will adjourn this evening.

DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT.

A Lesson in Milking a Cow That Was Not a Lady

Just as Homer Croy Reached for the Source of Supply Things Began to Happen.

Some scientific expert engaged in farming has just discovered that a cow should be treated as a lady. Sometimes this is difficult, as often this depends on her early training.

We used to have a cow back home, a large roan with a low, retreating forehead, who had a way of stepping in the bucket that lost her many friends. No cow can endure herself to a person when she is standing with one foot in the bucket. No cow with the right kind of early life will do this.

When a person is thrown into the society of a cow it does not take him long to find out what her early life has been. If she stands with one foot in the bucket for any length of time, one can feel morally certain that her mother was not of the highest type.

Our cow's name was Clarice. I was often called on to milk Clarice. I was loath to do this, and she was just as loath to have me. We were never what might be called fast friends.

Once, with a bucket on my arm, I approached her on the subject of milking. Clarice was standing in the milk lot with a sad, far away look in her eyes, as if all her dreams had not come true, going over her supper for a second time. Clarice was always going back and putting a few finishing touches to her supper.

I placed the pail under her body, well toward the rear, and seated myself on a one-legged stool. I had not asked her if I could do this, but I felt that all would be well. Clarice had a window weight on the end of her tail, that she has picked up fighting flies down in the creek. I did not know that she was armed. I had just turned my attention to the pail when she hit me with the window weight. She was a good hitter.

I did not say anything, but I gave her a significant look. Pitting my shoulder into her side I again took hold of her. I put my hands around the parts mentioned and squeezed them. While I was trying to get the milk running she again hit me with the window weight. I gave her another significant look, followed by a lowering glance, and again placed my ear in her flank and reached for the source of supply. My hands had barely closed over the source of supply before I felt the muscles of her flank gather and become taut. Still suspicion did not strike me—but something else did. The last I remember distinctly was having my ear in her flank. The next thing I knew I had it in a pillow. From that time on there was a certain coldness between us. Her charm was gone. She now had feet of clay.

One evening I was crossing the meadow just as night was stealing out of the woods and blowing his black breath over the countryside, when I heard an angry voice behind me. I immediately turned around. It was Clarice's husband.

He was coming at me in high dudgeon. He had his nose close to the ground and his eyes on me. I saw that I was not needed and turned and started away as fast as I could. The husband came on apace. When I turned I found that he had come on several of them.

I headed toward a tree. When I arrived at the tree I took hold of a lower limb and started to ascend at once. I was out of breath, but I felt that it would be best to wait until I was at the top to regain it. I felt a shock, and in a moment saw the seat of a pair of trousers on his horns. I left that they were mine. I kept on climbing. This did not deter me a jot or tittle. Not a little.

My pursuer stood under the tree and, placing his nose near the ground, said things that I do not care to repeat, for I do not know who may be reading these lines. He stayed a long while under the tree, while I remained in it. I had no desire to come down. I would wait until my caller had gone. I was glad that the tree had selected that spot for its nativity. I was thankful that it had not seen fit to cast its fortunes a quarter of a mile farther on.

At last the unpleasant creature left. I did not try to get him to stay. I was tiring of his company. Once or twice I yawned openly. Finally, in the gloaming, he joined Clarice, and the two strolled off.

I did not feel favorably disposed toward either party. Try as I might, I could not help picking flaws in their breeding. Clarice had not lived up to my ideal of a lady, and her better half had fallen far short of my idea of a gentleman.—Homer Croy in Collier's Weekly.

A Week-End House Party.

Messrs. Dale and Harry Whitehurst of near Bedison were the hosts of a week-end house party to a number of their Barnard friends. The time was very pleasantly occupied in taking kodak pictures, games, vocal and piano music, and best of all, the good things in the eating line prepared by their mother and sister, Mrs. James Whitehurst and Mrs. W. B. Torrance. The guests departed Monday morning on the train from Arko. They are all wishing their hosts will have another house party in the near future and that they will again be the favored ones. Those in the party were Misses Maud and Dorothy Strader, Helen Merrill, Lavona and Mabel Cook, Jessie Goforth and Lydia Ambrose, and Messrs. Ova Goff, Arlie Strader, John and Floyd Ambrose.

Educational Methods Their Theme.

The women of the Twentieth Century club discussed "Modern Improvements in Children's Education" at its general meeting at the Elks club Tuesday afternoon, under the leadership of Mrs. George P. Bellows, who started the study with quite an interesting talk, touching on various writings that have been presented in several good practical ways in leading publications by men who see fault in the present day system. Mrs. Charles P. Bellows gave a complete article on the Gary system that has been introduced at Gary, Ind., where the children are being taught practical things in a way that is a great departure from the old system of teaching. They are being taught civics in the grades by learning the cost of everything pertaining to the building of houses and cement walks and paved streets, and so on, by figuring it out themselves, and the cost of everything they use, so they will early learn the value of things and have proper regard for everything.

They have fine gymnasiums through which the value of their bodies is taught and how to preserve health and strength. Miss Jessie Parcher spoke of the Montessori system, and gave an interesting sketch of its mother, Dr. Maria Montessori of Rome, who is the first Italian woman to break away from the stilted life of those women, and found a system of education that is gaining favor in America to such an extent that it may supercede entirely the present system that is not meeting with the requirements of present day American life. Dr. Montessori, who is a doctor of medicine, began the use of her system in 1909, working among the defective poor children until 1907, with such success that educators wondered what could not be done with it among normal, healthy children. By it each child receives individual instruction, instead of being taught in masses, as is now the way. The children are taught to read and write from the first. Mrs. George Bellows then told of what James M. Pierce of Des Moines, Ia., the famous newspaper man, is doing in regard to this new system. He is financing the Montessori method for the children in Tarrytown, N. Y., and is doing all he can to persuade educators in the state of Iowa to adopt its use. Iowa already stands head in this section in its graded schools, with Nebraska second and Kansas third. The Montessori system, it is found, is superior to the present kindergarten system. Mrs. Berney Harris and Miss Mayne Dooley presented "What is the Standard of Our Local School; Do Teacher and Parent Work Together, and is the School Board Doing Its Best?" They found the Maryville high school in the first class high schools in the state, standing high in attendance with 914, when the average is 80. Its graduates take high rank at the state university, nine of them having been elected to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa. The salaries of our high school teachers are above the average, running from $65 to $85, and the principal's salary is above that of any in the state. They found that 50 per cent of the teachers in the state receive less than $399 per year, but were glad to report the salaries of Maryville teachers much better than that. We pay a school tax of but $1, while in other places the rate is much higher. We have no medical inspector, no physical director, no drawing supervisor, no music supervisor, but should have, especially in regard to music. The domestic science department ranks higher than any in the state outside the cities excepting Savannah and Moberly. The equipment of our high school is good for school work, but the library could use $500 more

Manufacturer's Sale of Men's Fur Coats

Friday and Saturday,
Nov. 7 and 8, 1913

At the Reliable Outfitters, MONTGOMERY-LYLE CLOTHING CO., conducted by S. H. Loomis, president of one of the largest Fur Manufacturing Houses in the west.

On the above date we will have a full and complete line of

Fur Coats, Caps and Mittens

One of the largest, in fact, to be found anywhere in the country. If you are thinking of buying a Fur Coat you can't afford to miss this great sale.

You well know that with the steady advance of Furs it will only be a short time when they will be beyond the reach of all except the rich. Look at these prices for this sale:

Fur lined Coats.....$50.00 to $75.00
Plush lined Coats.....$20.00 to $32.50
Plain Galaway from.....$26.00 to $28.50
With Musk Rat collar....$30.00
Russian calf Coat, plain..$26.00 to $30.00
With Musk Rat collar....$30.00
Horse Hide.....$22.50 to $25.00

And to make this one of the greatest sales in the history of Maryville we will allow 10 per cent off of every article sold in our store for the 7th and 8th of November, 1913. We also have too many Boys' Suits in plain and double breasted, ages 13, 14, 15 and 16, that we will give 40 per cent off in this sale.

Yours to Please,

books. The building is sanitary and above the average. The gymnasiums are above the average, but the playgrounds are poorly equipped, and this, is the opinion of the superintendent, as well as the ladies who gave the result of their investigation to the club. Hand work is well taught in all the grades and in the ward schools they found the teachers handicapped in their work by having too many children in their departments. There should be another teacher in each of the ward schools. One of the ward teachers has fifty-seven pupils in her room, divided into three classes. No teacher should have more than thirty to do justice to herself and the children. Several have over fifty, and one in the Central building has over fifty. All the teachers are above the average. All are required to have normal training for grade work, while the high school teachers must be college graduates. The schools have 600 pupils with 16 teachers, too many pupils for that number of teachers. All parents are doing all they can to assist the teacher in her work, but the school board, it is believed, is doing all it can for the schools with the money it has to do with.

Col. Roosevelt and Mrs. Wiggs.

"De-lighted," cried Colonel Roosevelt when in Louisville he was shown the veritable "cabbage patch" wherein Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice found Mrs. Wiggs and Lovey Mary. And the chief executive went on to say that he regarded Mrs. Wiggs' life quite as highly as the simple life preached by his friend the Rev. Charles Wagner. Presidential praise is high praise always, and in his speech delivered before the students of the State Agricultural college at Lansing, Mich., he said: "You will learn the root principles of self-helpfulness toward others from 'Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch,' just as much as from any formal treatise on charity." This shows that the former executive is thoroughly in accord with the American people, who love Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch as they have loved few other women of literature and the stage.

The play will be presented here under the management of the United Play Co. on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the Empire theater.

DANGEROUS CATARRH STOPPED BY HYOMEL

Just as long as you have catarrh, your head will be stopped up, your nose will itch, your breath will be foul, you will hawk and sniffle, you will have droppings in the throat and that choked up feeling in the morning. The germs of catarrh have you in their power; they are continually irritating the membrane of your nose and throat.

You must kill these loathsome germs or their desperate assaults will in time leave you a physical wreck.

There is one remedy sold by the Orear-Henry Drug Co. that is guaranteed to kill the germs and stop catarrh or money back. It is Hyomel—you breathe it. The complete outfit costs $1.00. There is none just as good or that gives such quick, sure and effective relief.

Money refunded by the Orear-Henry Drug Co. to anyone whom Hyomel fails to benefit. A complete outfit costs but $1.00.

MAN WITH MORE LIVES THAN A CAT

Trout Once More Flirts With Death and is Still Alive.

Kansas City, Nov. 5.—L. E. Trout, known among his friends as the "Man Who Can't Be Killed," was sorted out from a pile of wood and scrap iron that had constituted a motorcycle and a buggy and was found once more to have narrowly escaped certain death. Trout was thrown among the scraps in a collision. He was found to have sustained a skinned knuckle and his hair was mussed up.

Five years ago Trout fell 170 feet from the top of an office building, on which he was working, crashed through a skylight at the bottom of the light court and landed on his feet on the ground floor. He was in a hospital a few days with bruises, abrasions and sprains.

About a year ago Trout was hurled over a fence into a cabbage patch when his motorcycle collided with a cat. At that time his left arm was fractured.

Trout has advertised his business by using as a delivery wagon a two-wheeled top buggy hitched to a motorcycle. The latest mishap resulted when this contrivance, going twenty-five miles an hour, ran into a curbing. He was arrested recently for driving his motorcycle fifty miles an hour with his five-year-old son on the handle bars.

LABOR FEDERATION TO MEET

Socialists Will Renew Fight to Control Organization.

Seattle, Nov. 5.—The general officers and a large number of eastern delegates to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor arrived here. Samuel Gompers, who is in poor health, will attend the convention, which will begin next Monday, but will accept no outside invitations. Secretary of Labor Wilson will arrive Monday.

It is intimated that the strife between the rival national unions of electrical workers has been ended, and that the warring bodies will unite during the federation sessions.

The fight of the socialist element to commit the federation to a socialist policy will come up again this year, led, as before, by former Congressman Victor Berger and Max Hayes.

GARRISON ON WAY BACK

Says No Friction Between Metcalfe and Goethals.

Panama, Nov. 5.—The American secretary of war, Lindley M. Garrison, and party sailed for New York from Colon. With reference to the reported friction between Colonel Goethals and Governor Metcalfe, the secretary said:

"I have talked with Colonel Goethals and Governor Metcalfe separately and together and am pleased to find there is no truth in certain rumors that there is disagreement between them. I regret anyone should have indicated that anything of the kind existed."

Lane Proposes Immense Park.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Secretary Lane recommended the withdrawal of more than 34,000 acres of land near the city of Denver, which it is planned to convert into a park. The land is picturesque for park purposes, it was reported, but not of value for agriculture, mining or other use. The land was withdrawn temporarily during the Taft administration, but reverted to the public domain because of lack of congressional action.

DEFENSE SCORES AT KIEV

Theological Experts Ridicule Theory of Ritual Murder.

Kiev, Russia, Nov. 5.—The defense scored in the case against Mendel Bellig, who is on trial for the alleged murder of the Christian boy, Yushinsky, when Professors Kokovoff and Tihomiroff, theological experts, ridiculed the idea that the Jews practiced ritual murder. Professor Kokovoff, who is attached to the St. Petersburg university and is a relative of the Russian premier, said:

"Were I told that the body of a child had been drained of its blood and were it proved to me this had been done by a Jew, the supposition that the crime had been perpetrated for the purpose of eating would be less absurd to my mind than the theory of ritual murder."

The witness could find nothing in the Talmud, he said, which directed the ritual murder of Christians.

Body May Be That of Mrs. Louissa.

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 5.—With her head and chest crushed, a woman, believed by the police to be Mrs. Mary Louissa of St. Clair, was found dead in the outskirts of Pottsville. Mrs. Louissa disappeared about two weeks ago and her twelve-year-old daughter created a stir when she reported to the police that her father had thrown her mother down a mine. The mine was searched in vain.

Shoot at Squirrel; Killed by Officer.

Kansas City, Nov. 5.—A hunter who refused to obey a command that he cease shooting in the park was shot and killed by Frank Robinson, a special officer in Swope park. The body was not identified. Robinson saw the man in the act of shooting a squirrel and ordered him to desist. The hunter replied by firing a charge at Robinson who then shot in self defense.

Read This Message Through to the End!

We want every reader of this printed message to ask himself: "Do I want to rise above the ordinary, commonplace existence that goes with a small, limited income? Have I a desire to BE SOMEBODY in this world, to attain a place among the SUCCESSFUL men and women who really accomplish something? Most of us have. The world has no use for failures, but it applauds SUCCESS.

YOU CAN SUCCEED—you can make more money than you are now earning.

You can increase your income in the amounts we named above. Oh, yes, you can. Don't say, "I simply cannot see how I can do it." That one remark is the earmark of failure. The "I can" and "I will" person is always welcomed by the handmaiden of SUCCESS. What are you today—a salary slave, a wage earner, or depending on the meager profits from some small business; do you run a boarding house, or wait on table, or clerk in a store or any one of a thousand and one vocations that allow you but the mere necessities of life? WHY NOT DO BETTER? WHY NOT BE SOMEBODY? Yes, you can! This printed message is the opportunity, is the open sesame to bigger, brighter things; it is the calling of OPPORTUNITY—the fabled old lady who visits us so very, very seldom.

Why not be associated with SUCCESSFUL men and women who have adopted a profession that is not alone lucrative, but is pleasant, educational, performed at will, and can be successfully accomplished by any person who can read, write and observe. No, dear reader, we are not going to ask you to join a correspondence school and TRY FOR THE UNATTAINABLE. Nor to buy a batch of technical books that few, very, very few persons, outside the authors can understand. Listen, read and let this truth soak in, permeate!

We are an organization of SUCCESSFUL men and women photoplaywrights banded together for the mutual benefit of each member. We are co-operative,

we are SUCCESSFUL. We hold out to you your measure of success. WE MAKE YOU SUCCEED. The technical work WE DO. Few people are mentally trained for that part of the work. But EVERY PERSON is trained by nature to provide the ground work, the skeleton on which the trained expert builds his finished product. You are staring now at a safe, sane and sure method. WE ACTUALLY NEED YOU. Probably you cannot realize this. But the fact remains; because with us, this motto holds, "One for all and all for one."

We have grown from a mere affiliation of a few souls buying experience dearly—right here on the ground, where 57 actual producing motion picture companies are rolling up film footage many thousands of feet a week. We have assisted each other, have taken in a few more from time to time. MADE THEM SUCCEED, because we brook no failure. And now, we are ready to extend the branches of this unique organization into the western states and accept a limited membership from each section, each state. The newness, the freshness, the out-of-the-ordinary happenings that occur daily in every habitable spot in this country are ALL WORTH MONEY. Catch the idea? We relieve all the harassing details from your shoulders; we care for the marketing and its attendant delays by mail. WE are on the spot and KNOW HOW. Often we ourselves purchase.

Let us repeat, BE SOMEBODY. Get away from the fetters of a limited salary or wage or income. Join yourself with a SUCCESS that is everyone's due. Participate in the pleasures of life that your Maker intended you to enjoy. There is ample room for all, but for the present we limit our membership and for that reason write TODAY, WRITE NOW. Write for the pamphlet that holds out to you the keys to freedom and happiness. Get in the band wagon of SUCCESS with us. If you don't you alone are to blame. A postal will do, and just say, "Send me details FREE." No obligation at all. Address your inquiry to

RADFORD, VA., MAN

Radford and Nervous, Restored to Health by Vinol.

A. D. Robinson, Radford, Va., says: "I was all run down in health, had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. Vinol was recommended to me, and after using one bottle I noticed an improvement. Continuing its use, I was completely restored to health. The nervousness is all gone, I can get a good night's sleep and have a hearty appetite. I can recommend Vinol to anyone who suffers as I did."

Vinol is the greatest body builder and strength creator we know of. The curative elements of the cod's liver, aided by the blood making, strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol, restore the lacking ingredients to the blood, and the result is health, strength and vigor.

If you need building up try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.—Greer-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best for Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Tastes Delicious.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

Miss Lorene Blankenship, the trimmer for the Elite Millinery store, went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning, where she will be employed in a wholesale house.

Mrs. N. T. Saldy of Excelsior Springs, Mo., is located at the McCrary millinery with a line of Chinese and Japanese hand embroideries, Cluny, Maderia and Venetian luncheon sets, and a big variety of antique laces. Will be here until Saturday only.

Mrs. John Herren and Mrs. M. Nusbaum went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning and will be guests of Mrs. George Toel until Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. T. Godsey and son and Mrs. George Keefe went to St. Joseph Tuesday evening to spend a few days with Mrs. Godsey's sister, Mrs. S. M. Smith.

Mrs. Lee Yeaman of Kansas City, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. A. M. Reece and Mrs. Joseph Aken, went home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. T. F. Reimer and children went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning for a week's visit with Mrs. Reimer's sister, Mrs. J. B. Luton.

Printed on the front of every official time table which goes to Wabash employees are two large circles, "SAFETY ALWAYS." Printed on the back of every official time table are these words: "SAFETY should be the first consideration of every employee." It is a constant admonition to every Wabash trainman, for the protection of every Wabash traveler. Beginning with the human factor, the Wabash surrounds its travelers with every mechanical safeguard known to modern railroadism: Steel equipment; automatic electric block signals; miles of double track; heavy rails and substantial roadbed; telephone dispatching, etc.

A Fine Chance to start in the Dairy Business Without Much Money

Any dairyman who wants to get ahead but has only a little money, had better write and find out what I have to tell him about a way to get started in a great dairy country, where the first expense is small, and conditions including market are absolutely right.

Write at once, tell me something about yourself. Give me a chance to advise you. That's what I am paid to do.
